THURSDAY EVENING, JULY 27, 1882.

LOCAL MATTERS.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES. July 27, 1882. For the Middle Atlantic States partly cloudy weather. Local rains, winds mostly westerly, stationary or lower temperature and pressure.

There will be a meeting of the directors of the Fair Association to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock at the City Treasurer's office.

CHARGED WITH ABDUCTING HER OWN CHILD.—An old colored woman named Susan Gordon, living near the Virginia Midland Railway depot, reported at police headquarters this morning that a young white woman of this city about twenty months ago placed in her charge a child four days old to be taken care of; that she kept the child until last night during the rain when the young woman came to her house, and without saying a word grabbed the baby by the arms and made off with it; that she followed the woman for the purpose of regaining possession of the baby until she lost sight of her in the darkness; that when she last saw the woman with the baby she was going in the direction of St. Mary's Cemetery; that she, the Gordon woman, was afraid she would be held responsible for the welfare of the child and desired the woman to show what she had done with her offspring.

The young woman, in obedience to a summons appeared before the Mayor, and giving satisfactory evidence that the baby was not the child of the woman, she was discharged at once. The baby was produced in court, and a fine looking laughing boy it was too. The investigation was a quiet one, but the matter got whispered about, and a number of persons collected in front of the station house. Notwithstanding babies are as common as blackberries, there was manifested a great curiosity to see this particular baby. Old men, who have been looking at babies of their own for 40, these many years upon hearing what was going on hastened, as the crowd does to a public wedding, to get a peep at a baby in a Mayor's office. The baby took the affair good naturedly.

POLICE NEWS.—There were before the Mayor to-day John Luckett, for the larceny of a number of articles from his wife, Ruben Rod, colored, charged with threatening Roy Reynolds, Peter Whitfield, colored, of Washington, for disorderly conduct on the streets; Wm. Roberts, white, and Wm. Washington, colored, for disorderly conduct, twelve parties for maintaining nuisances on their premises, and a young white woman charged with abducting her own child from the house of Susan Gordon, colored. Luckett was sent to the chain gang for 90 days; Ruben Rod was discharged as there was no evidence against him. Peter Whitfield, Wm. Roberts and Wm. Washington were fined $2.50 each, and Whitfield in default of the same of his fine was locked up subject to the chain gang. The parties charged with maintaining nuisances on their premises were ordered to abate the same within forty-eight hours. The young white woman was discharged as she produced the baby in court, showing that it was being properly cared for.

The young woman arrested yesterday afternoon for disorderly conduct on the streets, was fined $1 by the Mayor last night and discharged.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.—As stated in yesterday's GAZETTE the Board of Supervisors of Alexandria county held a meeting at the old court house in this city yesterday afternoon. The session was continued till seven o'clock last night. A county levy of $1.50 on the $100 personal and real property for all purposes was ordered as follows: For county expenses 70 cents, for roads 10 cents, for schools 30 cents and State tax 40 cents, a reduction of 60 cents on the levy of last year. A satisfactory settlement with Treasurer Wilbert for the year commenced June 20, was had. Superintendent of Poor Palmer was ordered to have an addition made to the county almshouse so that all paupers can be kept in one place, the main building heretofore to assist the needy and disabled one at their own homes. The custom of having supplies for the poor furnished for three months at a time was discontinued and the Superintendent of Poor was ordered to purchase the said supplies in open market.

DEAD.—Wm. Curtis, the fireman on the Virginia Midland Railway, whose illness at his home in West End, from injuries received by being struck on the head by an over-head bridge on that road a short time ago, was noticed yesterday, died at 10 o'clock last night. Mr. Curtis was thought to have entirely recovered from his injuries and was about to return to his work, when, on Thursday night last, he was taken suddenly ill in his head, and continued from the beginning of his sickness to his death in a delirious condition. To-day an examination of the brain of the deceased was made by Drs. Powell and Smith. An abscess on the brain was found to be the cause of death. Mr. Curtis was a young man who had many friends, and his death will be generally regretted.

ADJUDGED A LUNATIC.—A commission consisting of Drs. Gibson and Brown, and Justices Mills, Wormley and Drummond, held at the old Court House in this city, has adjudged a man named Simms, of Alexandria county, a lunatic and ordered him to be sent to an asylum. Simms is laboring under a strange delusion. He imagines that having used a certain remedy for a skin disease without consulting a regular physician, he is dead, and declares that he can't feel or taste anything. He charges the Readjuster party, and a "Billy Mahone" especially, with having placed the tax on medicinal men so high that poor men can't afford to pay them. He declares that readjusters are bad men and need watching.

COUNTY COURT ITEMS.—The following cases before the County Court have been continued till September by Judge Sangster: Com. vs. Timothy Sullivan for assault on W. H. Palmer, near the Long Bridge; an appeal from Justice Drummond fining the said Sullivan $10; N. S. Wright and Geo. Short vs. J. R. Smoot; appeal from Justice Wormley's decision.

Mr. Wm. A. Cave has been admitted to practice law in the County Court, and Robt. W. Whiting, colored, has been granted a certificate of moral character in order to enable him to apply for admission to the bar.

BASE BALL.—The Richmond and Alexandria clubs played a game of base ball in Richmond yesterday evening—the first of a series of games. The Richmond defeated the Alexandrians by the following score: Richmond, 16; Alexandria, 8. The second game takes place this evening at 4:30 o'clock.

Parties from Richmond this morning report that the Alexandrian boys are quartered at the St. Clare House, and are being treated very courteously by the Brown nine. Lists were offered during the game yesterday on the Richmond boys would beat the Alexandrians two to one.

GORED BY A BULL.—A little son of Mr.

R. W. Brooks, who lives in Prince George's county, Md., opposite this city, was gored by a bull on Saturday last and quite seriously injured. The boy undertook to drive the bull from a shock of wheat when the animal became infuriated and turning on him gored him seriously, putting out one of his eyes and otherwise severely injuring him. After much difficulty Mr. Brooks succeeded in driving off the bull.

POLITICAL.—The readjusters of the city will hold a meeting at Potomac Hall, opposite the Washington and Western Railroad depot, to-night, for the purpose of electing delegates to the Congressional convention to meet in this city next month. It is understood the following, all colored, favorable to the nomination of Mr. D. A. Windor, will be selected: Augustus Ramsey, Thomas Allen, J. McK. Ware, Robert Williams and Robert Gaines.

The Republicans of the county will meet to-night for the purpose of deciding whether they will unite with the Mahone readjusters in the approaching campaign. It is thought that the straightouts will decide to have nothing to do with the Mahoneites. The Republicans claim that they have been snubbed on every occasion by the Mahoneites. Mr. Reeves at the readjuster meeting at the old Court House last Monday asked why Mr. Benjamin Austin had refused to unite with Mr. Whalen in signing the call for the meeting. Upon being informed that Mr. Austin had refused to sign the call until the Republicans of the county had been consulted in meeting assembled in regard to their wishes in the matter of coalition, Mr. Reeves declared that then Mr. Austin should be sustained; that as for himself he was tired of the dictation of the few Alexandrian readjusters in county affairs; that Mr. Whalen, the newly appointed chairman of the readjuster executive committee, was not the choice of the people of the county, and every body knew it; that unless the meeting waited for them by the Republicans the action taken would be repudiated. After this speech the meeting adjourned till next Tuesday night.

THE COAL TRADE.—The shipments from the Cumberland coal region for the week ending Saturday July 22, 1882, were 9,531 tons making the total shipment for the year to date 556,956, a decrease of 590,386 tons as compared with the corresponding period of 1881. The canal shipments were, for the week, 1,869 tons; for the year, 18,519, a decrease of 201,443 tons as compared with 1881.

FOR THE ASYLUM.—R. F. Tancil, colored, a physician at the Central Insane Asylum, who is in the city on a visit, will leave here to-morrow with Wesley Baker, colored, of Alexandria county, who has been adjudged a lunatic, and for whom a place has been secured in the above asylum. Baker has been confined in the jail of this city for several months.

COMMERCIAL.

ALEXANDRIA MARKET. July 27.—There was another decline in wheat to-day. The receipts amounted to 7550 bushels and sales were made at 105.10 for Fultz, 108 for mixed, and 108.10 for Lancaster. Corn is lower and 400 bushels of white brought 104. One lot of dry sold at 75 and some common Oats brought 55.50.

QUEENSTOWN CATTLE MARKET. July 26.—Cattle up; 188 sold at 3.40 a lb. per lb. 37 lb. per lb. market very dull at a decline of 1/2 per lb. for the past two weeks. 300 Sheep and Lambs were sold. Old Sheep 3.40 a lb.; Lambs 5.00 per lb. and 14.14 milch Cows sold at $25.50 a lb.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

New sweet potatoes are coming to market from the Eastern Shore of Virginia.

The farmers in this neighborhood say that crops are suffering for rain.

Mr. G. W. Ramsey has returned home after a pleasant visit to Cape May.

Golden Light Lodge of Good Templars will go on an excursion to-night.

Columbia Club of Pioneers, a colored organization, went on an excursion to Carlin's Springs to-day.

Good corn is now bringing better prices in this market than ordinary grades of wheat.

The tides now are very low, leaving the flats, covered with grass, exposed for miles up and down the river.

The schooners Geo. A. Freeland and Emily E. Burden are at Messrs. J. P. Agnew & Co's ship yard for repairs.

There was a slight rain this afternoon which had the effect of cooling the atmosphere considerably. The mercury in the thermometer fell from 92 to 81 degrees.

The steam schooner Maynard Sumner, a description of which was published in yesterday's Gazette, passed down the river from Georgetown to-day.

Mr. Lucien Hoff was so unfortunate as to cut his right hand quite severely in a cutting box a few days ago on his farm, on Seminary Hill.

An advance car, handsomely decorated, of Bartlett & Co's. Monster Railroad Show, which is to give two exhibitions in this city on the 12th of August, arrived here to-day over the Virginia Midland Railway.

Daily the farmer sends to his city commission merchant for one hundred grain sacks. Ninety-five are returned after many days—filled with wheat, and the other five are retained for very backs, table cloths, wagon covers and other farming purposes.

The California Architect and Building News contains a long but well written article by Mr. Glenn Brown, a visiting architect of this city and Washington, upon "Dwelling House Sanitation," in which the question of proper sanitary arrangements in the homes of all classes is ably discussed by the writer.

A Pugilist's Duel.

Young Mr. Butler Mahone has been posing as Mr. "Tug" Wilson, by which it is to be understood that the juvenile and slender-legged offspring of the distinguished Readjuster candidate for the next Vice-Presidency has been avenging his outraged honor under the Marquis of Queensbury rules. If the latest reports of the tragedy be correct, as they undoubtedly are, the honor of the Mahone family has been knocked into a cocked hat.

It appears that a few evenings since, young Mahone, who has not yet ceased to call the elder Mr. Mahone "papa," was out on a bender, familiarly called a moonlight excursion, on the beautiful Potomac, below the flats. By some horrible mischance a War Department clerk, one of those burn haired young things who are remarkable chiefly for the regularity with which they draw their salary, who was attended, as was Master Mahone, by a young lady, stepped on young Mr. Mahone's toes as he passed him.

Fourth the thoughtless wrath of the Mahones rose up in its usual, hurriedly buckled on its armor and ready demanded blood. As soon as the boat landed seconds were sought and found, and a duel arranged for Sunday night last on the outskirts of the city.

The young man from the War Department went out on time but young Mahone, whose valor had been steadily and persistently oaring out through his fingers and his outraged toes, did not show up.

But on Tuesday evening, as the last shades of the declining sun lingered on the grass on the top of Kalamazoo Heights, as it is called, young Mr. Butler Mahone and the young man from the War Department faced each other, and went to work with their fists.

There were but three rounds. In the first round, young Mr. Mahone executed a back double somersault that would have made Barnum's prize aerobit great credit, and landed in a mud-puddle.

In the second round, young Mr. Mahone's tight pants were split from Dan to Beersheba, his celluloid collar hopelessly dented, and his general appearance betrayed deep disgust and grief.

The third and last round resulted in young Mr. Mahone being dented in his wearing apparel and cuffs, and in being landed on a stretcher thoughtfully prepared for the occasion.

Young Mr. Mahone now languishes at his father's hotel, his entire countenance bearing a peculiarly surprised and indignant look. He will, of course, revive and take a little more interest in things mundane when he finds that his follies have become more generally known and commented on.—Wash. Post.
